The Liz Danby Shield For Effort - Leah Leslie

Leah is extremely committed and has become one of most experience competitive gymnasts in the club. Having recently completed her Regional Grade 1 she is looking to progress into National Grades - A challenge Leah will definitely work hard for,

Best Newcomer Award - Anna MacDonald & Charles Davies

Anna came in to the competitive Club group from our Secondary Rec Programme. She has grabbed every opportunity with both hands, and achieved so much in the short period so far. Anna is determined & committed, and continuously shows her love for gymnastics!

Charles has joined our Mens Artistic competition group this year and approached it with a positive attitude. He constantly seeks to improve his skills and knowledge of the sport, and is confident training and competing amongst gymnasts with more experience.

Senior Girls Award - Grace MacDonald & Claudia Brown

Grace is determined and coachable, and as a result, has grown her skill sets. She always has a positive attitude, is respectful to all coaches, and encouraging to other club gymnasts.

Claudia is enthusiastic about her training and always takes on feedback. She sets herself goals that keep her motivated in her training, and strives to improve all the time. She is positive and encouraging with her team mates too.

Junior Girls Award - Amelie Henderson & Holly Cameron

Amelie is a joy to coach. She is always polite and a good listener, giving her best in every session. It's great to see her trust the process and coaches, and achieving new skills through a having worked hard at strong basics.

Holly is always focussed and trains like she competes. She performs elegantly, and shows strength in her artistry. Holly works hard on improving her weaknesses to allow her to progress.

The Boys Trophy for Effort & Commitment - Kai Harrigan

Kai gymnasts has shown passion and determination for his gymnastics over the last 12 months, with results shown in training and today in his competition. He is always polite, hard working and a great team player.

The Most improved Award - Alison Cullen & Aleksia Kovina

Alison had moved into 4 piece competitions not long before lockdown and has pushed herself to achieve tough routines. She embraces challenges in such a manner that you would forget something is new to her. Alison is extremely self-motivated and committed to the sport.

Aleksia takes her strength and flexibility training seriously and it pays off in progress with her technical skills and competitive progress. She pushes herself and has inepcable attendance.

Willie Bell Trophy for Contribution to Gymfest - Amelie Macleod & Jack Finnigan

Bringing her bright and positive energy to a team, Amelie is a brilliant and valued member of the team. In her first gymfest Amelie performed with confidence having had some tough balances to master in a short period of time!

Jack was our senior MAG representative in the team, he definitely catches an audiences attention with his spectacular tumbling raising the bar of our team performance. His commitment to them team and kindness to younger gymnasts is what IGC is all about.

Award for Artistry (Decided by Judges on the day) - Martha Mackintosh & Evie Dowling
